Mexico

Mexico is a fascinating experience characterised by deep-rooted traditions, bustling colonial cities, sleepy villages and the stunning archaeological sites of the Maya and the Aztecs. Huge, historical, local, musical, overwhelming, intimate, Mexico is a land of spectacular contrasts. From ancient pyramids to modern skyscrapers, from sleepy pueblos to gargantuan cities, from 10,000 kms of coastline to jungles and waterfalls. Mexico is a world in itself.

At a glance

- Possible to visit all year round (July and August, mid-December - early January are high season), Easter and Day of the Dead (early November) are also busy
- Internal flights are required to maximise time
- Mexico city - a large metropolis founded by the Aztecs
- Stunning archaeological sites and pyramids
- Elegant, charming UNESCO World Heritage cities such as Oaxaca and Campeche
- Caribbean beaches - coral reefs, endless sand and turquoise water
- Copper Canyon - one of the world's greatest train journeys
- Vibrant arts, music and dance scene

Combinations

Mexico combines particularly well with Guatemala.

Mexico City

Mexico City is a capital of epic proportions and boasts a fascinating mix of interesting museums, excellent restaurants, delightful squares, lively music, street vendors, serene parks and vibrant street life. The historic heart of the city is the enormous Zocalo square - which is one of the largest plazas in the world. It is surrounded by the presidential palace and cathedral. The Condesa and Roma districts are firmly established as trendy nightlife zones. About 50 km north-east of Mexico city is the impressive archaeological site of Teotihuacan.

La Casona

Mexico city BB

La Casona is a small and modest hotel spread over two floors. It is conveniently located in the La Condesa district. The attractive public areas have dark wooden flooring, antiques, musical instruments and ornaments. Each of the 29 rooms have a TV, safe deposit box and air-conditioning. There is an interior courtyard area, gym, a small restaurant and bar.

Casa Catrina

Oaxaca BB

A charming Oaxacan family home which has been converted into a lovely boutique hotel. The spacious 6 rooms offer air-conditioning, minibar, TV and a safe deposit box. Breakfast is served in the courtyard (no restaurant) and there is a bar in the basement. Abstract paintings, local textiles and brick flooring all add to the ambience.

OUR TOP TIPS

About 20 km south of Mexico city is Xochimilco - a network of canals lined by gardens - relax on board a trajineras (gondola) • Visit the Monarch butterfly biosphere reserve 60 miles northwest of Mexico city (between November and March) • Day of the Dead (early November) is an annual festival that celebrates departed loved ones with fancy dress, lively street parties and floral covered cemeteries.

Palenque

San Cristobal de las Casas

Playa del Carmen

Chichen Itza

Chiapas

The rural state of Chiapas is a real gem, located in the southernmost corner of Mexico. It is blessed with lush jungles that surround stunning Mayan ruins and waterfalls. The indigenous residents shun modern fashion in favour of ponchos and traditional dress. At the heart of Chiapas lies the beautiful colonial highland town of San Cristobal de las Casas. It is a pleasure to explore its cobbled streets and markets. The jungle-enshrined site of Palenque is arguably the most romantic and impressive of all the ancient Mayan cities. The soaring but graceful pyramids are crowned with temples that glow in the tropical sun. The ruins and surrounding forest form a national park.

OUR TOP TIPS

The steep-walled Sumidero canyon (close to San Cristobal) is a haven for wildlife best explored by boat • The striking waterfalls of Agua Azul and Misol-Ha can be visited en route to Palenque • Other recommend sites in Chiapas are Yaxchilan, Bonampak and Tonina

Casa Vieja

San Cristobal de las Casas BB

This rustic property is set in a 18th century house with lots of paintings and old-world ambience. The 40 en suite rooms situated around a courtyard feature beams, adobe walls and hand-painted bathroom tiles. There is a restaurant serving traditional Mexican dishes.

Quinta Chanabnal

Palenque BB

Set in tropical gardens approximately 3 miles from the ruins. It has 7 suites with terracotta stone floors, antique furniture, TV, air-conditioning, fan, Wifi, hairdryer, safe deposit box and a balcony. The restaurant offers an intimate and romantic setting for a candle-lit dinner. The beautiful grounds are abundant with wildlife such as iguanas and hummingbirds. There is a swimming pool and spa.

Yucatán Peninsula

Yucatán is a region which boasts a number of impressive archaeological sites including the soaring temples at Chichen Itza, Kabah, Uxmal and Coba. Campeche has wonderfully-restored colonial buildings and it is a real delight to wander around this UNESCO city. Merida is a charming city with artistic roots. It features a stunning cathedral, mansions and elegant properties dating from the 17th century. Celestun reserve is located 60 miles west of Merida - take a boat trip on the estuary and mangrove forests. The Riviera Maya is the coastline between Cancun and Tulum, with its white-sand beaches and turquoise waters. The commercial city of Playa Carmen offers a wide range of watersports as well as a selection of restaurants, cafes and bars.

Hacienda Puerta Campeche

Campeche BB

This delightful hotel is an oasis in the heart of Campeche. All rooms are elegantly decorated and they have a safe deposit box, TV and air-conditioning. The stylish restaurant offers both indoor and outdoor dining. A swimming pool snakes through the walls of the property. There are hammocks dotted around the gardens. There is a jacuzzi, spa and rooftop bar. A long-standing Sunvil favourite.
