

Nicosia Convent

Nicosia Aqueduct

The Central Plain Nicosia

The historic, divided – though the divide is slowly disappearing – inland capital and centre of the island's activities. Not a resort but a place of interest and a useful base for excursions. The old quarters are coming alive with courtyard restaurants, tavernas, bars, craft shops and interesting houses as traditional buildings are renovated to stand side by side with excellent shops. A visit to the Archaeological Museum is a must, the restored 18th century House of Hadjigeorgakis is worth a visit and guided tours within the walls of the old city are run regularly.

Holiday Inn

Holiday Inn Nicosia

- 4 Star Hotel ■ Bed and Breakfast
- Swimming Pool ■ Air Conditioning
- 45 minutes private taxi transfer to and from Larnaca Airport included

In recent years, Nicosia has benefited from having an enlightened Mayor who encouraged the pedestrianisation and renovation of parts of the old town. The Holiday Inn is a few minutes walk from this colourful and interesting district and is, itself, set in a restored building of character within the ancient city walls. There is ample parking opposite the hotel.
