

Loggos

Paxos

Sweet, silvery Paxos is the smallest of the Ionian islands – just seven miles long and three wide – and lies to the south of Corfu. Many return each year: drawn back by its magical small-island charm, pretty villages, thickly-wooded landscape, and white-pebble coves lapped by the clearest of seas.

Paxos is literally covered with olive trees, and the oil is amongst the best you can find. Pines and cypresses also flourish, and lead down to the water's edge.

Being so small, and such gentle wooded country, Paxos is a paradise for walking – particularly in the spring or early summer when countless varieties of wild flowers bloom. It is small enough to walk the length of in a day, and criss-crossed with hundreds of paths and tracks. Bleasdale's excellent 'Walking Map and Guide' can be bought locally.

Despite its size there are over 30 beaches to choose from. Bar sandy Mogonisi most are small and of white pebbles which shelve gently into crystalline waters. Some can only be reached by small motorboat, easily rented and the best way to explore your local coastline. For sand, you have only to visit tiny Anti-Paxos a mile to the south, which has Caribbean-hued waters. Anti-Paxos is reached by small water-taxi from Gaios.

The population of Paxos is about 2,500. Most live in the three main seaside villages of Lakka, Loggos and Gaios, the capital. Each has its own distinct character and charm.

The little port of Lakka in the north looks towards Corfu. Its large, almost circular bay offers sheltered waters and an aquamarine sea. Olive trees come down almost to the water's edge and hide white-pebble beaches. Lakka has an authentic, friendly village atmosphere - the whitewashed narrow lanes running back from the attractive harbour hide a good choice of cheerful tavernas, cafes and small shops.

Loggos is the smallest and prettiest of the three, with about 30 old houses clustered around the waterfront. Those choosing to stay close to the waterfront will be at the heart of village life here, which can be busy in season. Loggos has some excellent tavernas, a bakery and a few small shops. The nearest good beach (Levrechio) is a five minute walk around the headland.

Gaios is the capital. Although not large, it is the most cosmopolitan and popular with the yacht fraternity. It has an attractive flag-stoned square, plenty of cafés, a number of small bars and a good choice of restaurants. The view of Gaios' pretty waterfront buildings from the island of Aghios Nikolaos across the narrow channel is little changed since Lear painted it in the 19th century.

Sophia's Apartment Loggos

- Self Catering
- Apartment for up to 4
- Early Booking Offer

We think Sophia's has possibly the best location in Loggos. It is located at the southern entrance to the village, above the harbour but not directly on the road, and enjoys spectacular views.

Reached by a fair number of steps (note: quite steep and unlit so unsuitable for anyone with walking difficulties), all the rooms, including the shower room, are accessed from the outside terrace. It comprises one double and one twin bedroom, a separate kitchen/diner with full cooker and fridge, and a large shower room with wc. Like so many Loggos properties, Sophia's is an older building and simply furnished in a traditional style.

To the front there is a large vine-shaded terrace, perfect for enjoying the wonderful views over the harbour to the mainland beyond. Levrechio Beach is a five minute walk away over the hill.

Aleca's Cottage Loggos

- Self Catering
- Cottage for 2/3

- Early Booking Offer

Aleca's is a small terraced house right on the waterfront at the entrance to Loggos, opposite the jetty.

The cottage comprises a ground floor living room where a folding bed can be put for a child, a compact kitchen area (full cooker, fridge) and shower room with wc.

An open staircase leads to the open-plan twin bedroom which enjoys delightful views across the harbour from its narrow front balcony. Furnishings are mainly of pine. The air conditioning unit is on the landing.

Although we would stress the rustic simplicity of this fisherman's cottage, Aleca's has considerable village charm and character, wonderful views and an excellent location for those who wish to be in the heart of this prettiest of villages.

Soustas Apartments Loggos

- Self Catering
- Studios for 2
- Apartments for 2/3

Soustas Apartments are towards the back of Loggos, albeit only a 100m flat walk from the harbour. Unusually for apartments within the village they have a swimming pool.

The pair of maisonettes is newly built and offer spacious, simple but good quality accommodation. Each comprises a ground floor living room with sofa-bed, fitted kitchen area with 3-ring mini-oven and fridge, a guest wc and a front patio. Upstairs is a spacious double bedroom with air conditioning, lcd tv and en suite shower/wc. This room has a balcony with views either to the hillside and village (partial sea view to one side) or over the pool. There is also a small second balcony.

The studios are older-style and basically furnished in pine. These have a small air conditioned double bedroom, a separate galley kitchen with 2-ring mini-oven and fridge, a shower room and a front balcony with sunblind and hillside/village views (some side sea views from the top floor).

The freshwater pool measures 9m x 7m (depth 0.8m-1.6m) and is situated behind the maisonettes. Air conditioning is included in the price.

Poppy's Apartment Loggos

- Self Catering ■ Apartment for for 4/5
- Air Conditioning ■ Early Booking Offer

Some of the most beautiful views over Loggos bay are to be had from Poppy's large vine-shaded front terrace.

This spacious self-contained apartment occupies the entire top floor of a house with a private entrance from the rear (the owners live below). It is built on the hillside above Loggos, some 400 metres up a small road (steep in parts) from the village, so the location would be unsuited to anyone with walking difficulties, and those with very young children should also take note. There is a handful of other houses nearby.

Entrance is from the back of the house into the dining room. The separate kitchen contains a full cooker and off it there is a tiled shower room with wc. There are two bedrooms, a twin and a double (both air-conditioned).

To the front there is a huge vine-shaded terrace veranda which enjoys lovely views over the olive trees to Loggos harbour and the sea – the perfect spot for al fresco dining. A folding bed can be placed in the dining room for a child.

Poppy's was not built as a holiday apartment but as a Greek home. Furnishings and décor are hence a little old-fashioned, and the house has a homely air.

A spacious holiday home with plenty of Greek character, a quiet location and fine views.

Air-conditioning: Available at a local charge of 5 Euros per day

Décor and furnishings are traditional in style, comfortable and well-kept.

To the rear is a small garden (with BBQ area) where you can sit and enjoy some afternoon sun.

Christina offers good quality, spacious accommodation in an excellent location. The air-conditioning is included in the holiday price.

This first (top) floor apartment is in a quiet location only 30m back from Loggos waterfront.

Entrance is into a large front living room, with tv, cd player, air-conditioning and a sofa-bed. The kitchen area to one side is with full cooker and fridge, and there is a balcony above the small street below. There is a large tiled shower room; the double bedroom to the rear (also air conditioned) has good sea views and a ton of wardrobe space (it's either famine or feast in Greece!); and sea views over the roof tops can also be had from the narrow front terrace which runs the width of the house. The apartment has been built and furnished as a home, not for tourism, and as such you will find traditional furnishings and décor, and lot of Greek knickknacks!

With stone floors, wooden ceilings, plenty of space and just yards from the harbour, Stamatis should tick all the right boxes for those wishing to stay in the heart of this pretty village.

Ioanna Apartments Loggos

- Self Catering ■ Apartments for 2/3
- Family Unit for 4/5 ■ Air Conditioning
- Early Booking Offer

This pair of semi-detached 1-bedroom apartments occupies a peaceful position on the wooded hillside above Loggos, with lovely views to the bay. A five minute walk down the hill brings you, via a small path, to the harbour (a little longer back) – however, as the walk up is steep in parts it would not be suited to those with walking difficulties.

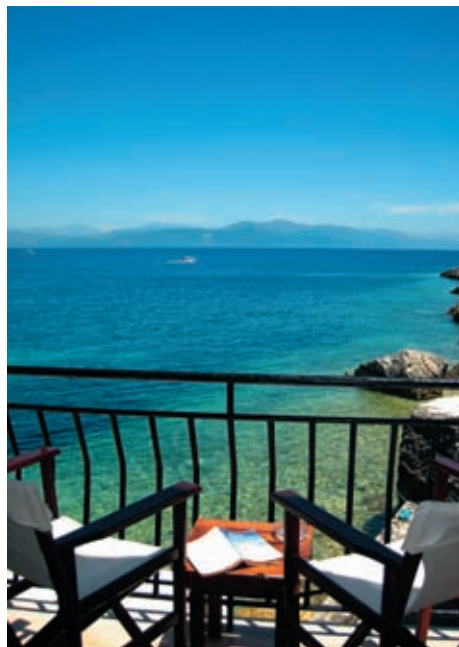

The apartments are spacious and neatly furnished in a typically simple style. Each has a side entrance into a living room containing kitchen with full fridge and mini-oven, and room for a folding bed. The tiled shower room is accessed from here. To the front the twin bedroom opens onto the front covered balcony boasting beautiful views over Loggos harbour and bay to the hillside opposite. Each apartment, too, has a large open sun terrace to the side.

For larger parties (or two couples) the apartments can combine via a removeable balcony divider.

Recommended for their space and quiet hillside location, Ioanna are within a short walk of this delightful village yet away from the summer bustle.

A spiral staircase leads to the top floor double bedroom, and from the narrow balcony to the front there are uninterrupted views over the sea to the mountains of the mainland.

Fotini's Cottage Loggos

- Self Catering ■ House for 2/3 ■ Air Conditioning

Fotini's enjoys a quiet hillside location a 6-7 minute walk from Loggos. The walk up is steep in parts which would make it unsuited to anyone with walking difficulties (without a car) or perhaps with a small child in a pushchair.

It is an individual property for just 2 (or 3 if a child). Entrance is into a living room with an open-plan kitchen area containing electric hob, microwave and fridge. The house has an air conditioned double bedroom and a tiled shower room with wc. To the front there is an open and sunny stone patio with sun loungers and views to the sea. There is a handful of other houses nearby.

Fotini's Cottage is neatly and comfortably furnished and has marble floors throughout. The air conditioning is included in the price.

Marmari Beach

Marmari Cottages near Loggos

- Self Catering ■ Cottages for 2 or combined for up to 6 ■ Air Conditioning
- Early Booking Offer

This small cluster of three studio-style detached cottages are ideal for couples or, when combined, for a group of up to six.

Marmari Cottages enjoy an enviable location, quietly located in an olive grove between two fine beaches yet just a short walk from Loggos. They stand within a small walled garden area and each comprises an air-conditioned twin bedroom (with ceiling fan), a shower room with wc and a separate kitchen containing a mini-oven and electric rings. Each cottage is set away from its neighbours and has a sitting area on its patio to the front. Furnishings are very simple yet all you should need for the low-key holiday these cottages offer.

A two minute walk down a narrow track through the trees brings you to Levrechio beach, which now has a summer taverna just behind it, and three minutes via an uneven path in the other direction to peaceful white-pebble Marmari beach. Loggos is just the other side of the headland and can be reached in under ten minutes walk.

We stress again the simplicity of a holiday here, but consider the location to be amongst the best on Paxos.

Air-conditioning: Available at a local charge of 5 Euros per day.

Marmari Beach House near Loggos

- Self Catering ■ House for 2/4 ■ Air Conditioning
- Early Booking Offer

Literally just a stone's throw from Levrechio beach, this summer house enjoys possibly an even better location to that of the nearby Marmari Cottages just up the way. It would be suitable either for a family or two couples, as each bedroom has its own ensuite shower/wc.

The house comprises simply one twin and one double bedroom, with a small open-plan kitchen between them (containing a fridge and full cooker with hob) and two shower rooms with wc. Air-conditioning is included in the price. Like the cottages, furnishings and décor are very simple.

To the front of the house there is a large and sunny walled stone patio/garden area with sunbeds and some views of the sea to the side. Turn right from the patio and you are on the beach.

For a change to Levrechio, Marmari beach is a five minute walk via a rough track through the olive groves. Loggos can be reached in little over five minutes, although there is a very handy taverna (busier in the daytime than in the evenings) which fronts the beach nearby.

Livadi Studios Lakka

- Self Catering ■ Studios for 2/3 ■ Air Conditioning
- Swimming Pool ■ Early Booking Offer

These studios are in an olive grove set back from the lower road into Lakka. They have attractive garden surrounds and a beautiful new swimming pool to one side.

Some ten studios here are housed in two bungalow-style buildings. All are on the upper ground floor, some half-dozen steps up from the garden. They are modern, spacious and nicely furnished, all with double or twin beds; air conditioning (included); kitchenette with mini-oven, cooking rings and fridge; and balcony overlooking the pretty gardens to the side and rear. Some can take an extra bed for a child.

The freshwater swimming pool measures 10m x 7m (depth 0.50m-1.80m) and has furnished paved surrounds.

Lakka is a five minute walk – this characterful village has a horse-shoe bay, enclosing turquoise waters of the utmost clarity fringed with white-pebble beaches

(shelving to sand). Although small, Lakka is a little bigger than Loggos (not difficult!) and has a very friendly atmosphere, oodles of Greek character, and some excellent restaurants and caf   bars. Boat hire is available.

We are very pleased to have found such good quality studios so close by, and with the bonus of a swimming pool (rare in Lakka).

Please note the studios are not available during the period 30Jul-26Aug inclusive.

Lakka

House of Hermes Lakka

- Self Catering ■ House for 2/5 ■ Air Conditioning
- Early Booking Offer

This lovely, spacious country house has undergone comprehensive renovation and refurbishment, due to be completed winter 2012. Shaded by ancient olive trees, the house is just outside Lakka within a ten minute walk of shops, tavernas and beaches. The walk to the waterfront is not suitable for anyone with mobility problems.

A particular attraction is the flagstone courtyard, bordered by lemon trees and with beautiful views over hillsides of olive and cypress and two churches.

The house comprises one double, one twin and one single bedroom (all with individual air conditioning); sitting/dining room with a new kitchen planned for here

(full cooker and fridge); bathroom with shower. Much of the furniture and fittings are new, and the house now offers good levels of comfort whilst preserving its traditional flavour.

The peace and privacy of Hermes is disturbed only by cicadas in the surrounding olive groves during the heat of midday.
