London Victoria to Verona or Venice (via Paris)

Thursday or Sunday: Board the gleaming carriages of the British Pullman train at London Victoria station, and sit back and enjoy brunch served with a Bellini as you make your way to Folkestone. On arrival, the hostesses escort you on the coach transfer on to the Shuttle service through the Channel tunnel to France.

At Calais Ville the immaculate Wagons-Lits carriages of the continental train await. After you have settled into your comfortable private cabin it will soon be time to dress for dinner. Why not sip an aperitif before making your way to one of the magnificent restaurant cars. Here you will be served a delicious four course dinner, prepared by skilled French chefs. After dinner you may want to linger in the Bar Car, listening to the sound of the baby grand piano. When you are ready, retire to your cabin which has now been transformed into a cosy bedroom.

Friday or Monday: Awake to the magnificent scenery of the Swiss Alps as breakfast is served in your cabin. Spend the morning in the Bar Car chatting to fellow guests over coffee before a leisurely three course lunch served in another of the beautiful restaurant cars. While-away the afternoon with a visit to the onboard Boutique to purchase souvenirs, or relax in your cabin and admire passing scenery as the train travels through the Italian Dolomites. Later, afternoon tea is served in your cabin as you travel through the spectacular Brenner Pass. All too soon it is time to prepare to disembark as the train crosses the Venetian Lagoon and pulls into Santa Lucia station.
