

the real selection

Four decades of fabulous holiday-making, flexibility and total financial protection: no flowery descriptions or exaggerated claims; no closet costs or rigid rules.

Pioneer and protector of the unspoilt and unusual in travel, Sunvil is the obvious choice for independent travellers wishing to immerse themselves in a country's culture and stay in properties that have all been painstakingly hand-picked.

real cyprus

Halloumi-make in a hilltop village; accompany a local fisherman into amethyst waters; bliss out on a peaceful beach; or explore forgotten villages. The more subtle side of Cyprus - whether it's 5-star fabulous or stylish self-catering you seek - the focus is on the unfamiliar. A million miles from mass-market mayhem, experience real island life.

real azores

Be at one with Blue whales and Bottlenose dolphins; proud of yourself for reaching Mount Pico's pinnacle (2,351m); genned-up on a geological history tour; blown away by glistening green lakes, meadows blanketed in flowers, and black volcanic walls. Sub-tropical and untouched, these nine unpolluted specks in the Atlantic Ocean beckon all year round.

real greece

Whitewashed chapels, tumbledown villages, and islands scattered on a wine-dark sea. No fewer than 421 pristine Blue Flag beaches. Alpine scenery, spring flowers and silvery olive groves - silence save for the tinkle of a goat's bell. Organic wine and wholesome cuisine; the healthiest diet in Europe. Simple pleasures here in the birthplace of western civilisation, where historical sites date back some 4,000 years. This is the real Greece - away from the masses, focusing on the untouched and unknown.
