

Athens

Always vibrant, this 24-hour city is an intriguing mix of east and west, history and modernity, bustle and culture. Athens contains treasures that really should be seen at least once, and a few nights here can easily be included in our fly-drive or tailor-made holidays.

Over recent years there has been substantial investment in Athens' infrastructure (new airport, roads, transport systems), upgrading of museums and historical sites, and significant hotel refurbishment.

Tickets for the Acropolis and the main sites of Athens' historical centre can be booked online at etickets.tap.gr

We have selected a range of hotels, mainly within our favoured district of Makryianni, as it is just a short walk from both the Acropolis, the splendid new Acropolis Museum and the atmospheric 19th century Plaka district, now largely pedestrianised.

Athens also has organised beaches – the nearest can be reached by tram from the centre in about half-an-hour.

Wherever you stay, a wide range of guided excursions can be had, the most popular being the half-day city tour, full day Delphi and full day Argolis (Mycenae and Epidavros). All can be pre-booked. Three and four day Classical Tours are also available. For a full list of tours please enquire or see our website.

For a brief taste of Athens (including of course the Acropolis) the city can also be visited as part of an excursion from our resort of Tolon. A few nights in the city can also be included in any holiday booked via Athens Airport.

The closest island to Athens are the Saronics – Aegina can be reached by ferry in just 40 mins. and pretty Agisrti in 55 mins., making a short stay in the city followed by a relaxing island break by the sea very easy.

Monastiraki

Herodion Hotel roof-terrace

View from Royal Olympic 'Panorama' room

Central Athens Hotels

Although we can book any hotel in Athens we have selected those which over the years we have found to be comfortable, central and not too noisy. All are within a short walk of a metro station and 10 minutes from the Acropolis and Plaka (except Pan Hotel).

All hotels possess air-conditioning, TV, WiFi and mini-fridge. Our holidays to Athens are based on flights from Heathrow, Manchester or Gatwick and include taxi transfers.

Our chosen 5 Star hotel is the recently renovated Royal Olympic. The hotel has an excellent location just across the road from the Temple of Zeus. The hotel has well appointed rooms, roof restaurant and outdoor pool.

The Herodion is a good 4 Star hotel. It has a restaurant and bar, and some rooms have fine Acropolis views as do the roof-garden jacuzzis (free for Sunvil guests!).

Also 4 star, and not far from the Herodion, is the Hera Hotel, a most stylish boutique-style hotel (38 rooms only) of a very high standard. If you want a balcony guaranteed book a Junior Suite, which has Acropolis views. The hotel has a roof-garden restaurant.

The Philippos and Acropolis Select (both 3 star) combine good modern standards with a small and friendly atmosphere.

The Pan Hotel is a comfortable 3 Star just a minute's walk from Syntagma Square. You could not really be more central than this.

As flight prices vary so much depending on season and when you book, we will quote prices for Athens short breaks and holidays on request.