

Latin America

Diverse, friendly, fascinating... A matchless kaleidoscope of cultures, history, panoramas and biosystems, the continent is sure to stimulate, astonish and enthrall. Thanks to its tropical or subtropical climate, it is an all year round destination.

Central America

Compact and diverse, the region embraces coral-fringed beaches, jungle trails and haunting remains of Maya pyramids.

Mexico

Pages 38-43
Traditional customs, UNESCO World Heritage Cities and towering Maya temples.

Guatemala & Belize extension

Pages 34-37
Stunning archaeological sites, colonial towns and lakes.

Costa Rica

Pages 16-29
Self-drive trips, excellent wildlife, jungle lodges, beaches and activities.

Panama

Pages 30-33
Panama Canal, fascinating indigenous communities and untouched islands.

Galápagos islands

Pages 64-73
19 islands, cruises and hotels. Unique and endemic wildlife species.

Ecuador

Pages 54-63
Andes, charming Quito, impressive volcanoes and superb wildlife.

Peru

Pages 74-87
Impressive archaeological sites, upmarket hotels, trains and activities.

Bolivia

Pages 88-91
Salt flats, Andean peaks, Amazonian rainforests, crystal lakes, culture and traditions.

Chile

Pages 92-103
Atacama desert, volcanoes, vineyards, fjords, lakes, glaciers and Easter island.

Argentina

Pages 104-115
Stylish Buenos Aires, impressive Iguazu Falls, glaciers, mountains, lakes and wildlife.

Colombia

Pages 46-53
Colonial treasures, fine museums, salt cathedral, diverse wildlife and activities.

South America

A living theatre of spectacle and variety, world's largest river, highest waterfall, driest desert, immense rainforest, unique wildlife and national parks.

Brazil

Pages 116-127
Vast rainforests and wetlands, deserted beaches, superb wildlife and interesting cities.

Antarctica

Pages 128-129
Vast continent - wilderness, fascinating and unique wildlife.

