

Holiday Types

Whether it's adding to a city break with time relaxing on a beach, hopping between islands, or touring the countryside, Sunvil can help you plan the perfect getaway.

Active Holidays

People who love the outdoors will be in their element. Both countries offer a large and varied number of activities, many of which are available throughout the year. Visit one of the only places in Europe to see whales – 24 of the planet's 80 species of whales and dolphins have been sighted off the coast of the Azores. Swim with dolphins in their natural habitat or go diving and experience an unforgettable underwater adventure. The activities are, for the most part, of easy or medium difficulty and therefore suitable for all ages. See pages 48-49 and 80-81.

City Breaks

Portugal and Spain offer excellent choices for European city breaks. Within a 3 hour flight from the UK, you will feel the warmth of the Portuguese or Spanish sunshine and be surrounded by fascinating cityscapes and be within close striking distance of fabulous beaches and rolling countryside. World-class museums, incredible architecture, excellent shops, scrumptious cuisine and fine wines will all be within reach. See pages 15, 25-29, 34, 40, 83-85 and 87.

Multi-Centre Itineraries

Within our brochure, you will find a range of suggested itineraries which are examples of holidays that we can arrange. All these can be adjusted to meet your individual requirements. Multi-centre holidays including domestic flights, trains, ferries, private or shared transfers or self-drive car hire can be arranged. See pages 19, 23, 28, 29, 36, 37, 42, 43, 66-75, 89-91 and 95.

Wine & Gastronomy

The coastlines, countryside and mountain ranges of Portugal and Spain as well as their flora and fauna have all influenced the national cuisine. Each region, however, offers its own local specialities which in turn reflect the changing of the seasons. Try grilled sardines in Lisbon; bacalhão and the 'catch of the day' along the Atlantic coastline; the delicious Alentejo and Extremadura black pork; local cheeses and, of course, the local wine... you will not be disappointed.
