

Centro – the heart of Portugal

Varied, historic, compact and accessible, the Centro region is a traveller's delight. Here you will find glacial valleys, lush green mountains, Manueline churches, urban canals and never-ending sand-dunes. Citadels perch on hills and the black slate of village roofs distinguish this region.

Throughout the area, hidden villages nestle amidst green hillsides. Each season has its own character, cold and wet in winter, very hot in summer. In spring, magnolias blossom and there are a multitude of majestic linden trees.

Coimbra University
The oldest university in Portugal and a UNESCO World Heritage site is a must-see for any visitor. The Biblioteca Joanina, where bats protect the books from insects, is of exceptional interest.

The schist village of Piodão
Hidden in the Serra de Açor, Piodão is one of Portugal's prettiest rural villages. Step back in time and learn about the history of the border communities.

Cheese-making
Learn the art of cheese-making at the historic Casa da Ínsua. Curdle the milk, separate the curds and whey, and package the finished product – including a final tasting.

Serra da Estrela Natural Park
Covering around 1000 sq.km, the park is home to the highest mountains in mainland Portugal and a patchwork of charming villages. Hike, cycle, climb or try kayaking.

Hidden Gems

Discover the 'City of Water', Aveiro, with its criss-crossing canals and unique wooden boats 'Moliceiro'; Coimbra, a vibrant city, home to one of the oldest universities in Europe; and Óbidos, with its narrow cobbled streets and whitewashed houses draped with fragrant bougainvillea.

Porto – Aveiro – Coimbra – Lisbon

Itinerary: 10 days / 9 nights

Our suggested itinerary combines the UNESCO World Heritage site of Porto, the Art Nouveau coastal city of Aveiro, the university city of Coimbra and the capital of the country, Lisbon. The itinerary is not set and can be amended to suit individual requirements.

Day One: On arrival at Porto airport, you will be transferred to your hotel.

Day Two: Day at leisure. Take a cruise on the River Douro; visit the Igreja São Francisco, the city's finest church; climb the Clérigos Tower, and enjoy a tasting at a Port wine lodge.

Day Three: After breakfast, self-transfer to Porto train station for your journey to Aveiro (c.30-60 minutes). On arrival in Aveiro self-transfer to your hotel. Aveiro is a compact cobbled centre brimming with colourful Art Nouveau buildings, narrow waterways and excellent flea and food markets.

Day Four: Day at leisure in Aveiro. Take a canal cruise on board a 'moliceiro' – a traditional narrow boat; visit the city's lagoon, the São Jacinto nature reserve, the beaches of Costa Nova and the Vista Alegre porcelain factory in Ilhavo.

Day Five: After breakfast, take the train to Coimbra (c.45 minutes). On arrival, take a taxi to your hotel.

Day Six: Day at leisure in Coimbra. Don't miss Coimbra University, its bell tower and the spectacular baroque Biblioteca Joanina. The city is famed for the Fado of Coimbra (the song of Coimbra), which tells stories of unrequited love, sweethearts and memories of student life.

Day Seven: After breakfast, take the train to Lisbon (c.2 hours). On arrival, take a taxi to your hotel. In the afternoon, take a stroll through the city to the grand Praça do Commercio (square) and the Rossio Square. For the more active, climb the steps and narrow hillside paths to the district of Alfama to see the Castelo de São Jorge which dominates the hilltop.

Days Eight & Nine: Days at leisure in Lisbon: Visit one of the city's excellent museums - the National Museum of Azulejo dedicated to the art of painted ceramic tiles or the fine art museum of Gulbenkian; head to Belém to seek out the Portuguese explorers' monument, Torre de Belém and the manueline Monastery of Jerónimos. A rail link connects Lisbon to the coastal towns of Cascais and Estoril and the hilltop town of Sintra.

Day Ten: After breakfast, you will be transferred to Lisbon airport for your return flight home.
