

Our offer to discover the real Portugal

7 nights from only £419pp including flights accommodation and transfers

Europe's westernmost country is a laidback, relaxed and friendly land. Its people are warm and charming, and the roads and towns, largely, calm and uncongested. Historical and archaeological sites stand side-by-side with open countryside, extensive vineyards and forests, and a long and varied coastline.

Please call in for more details

Sunvil
find the real country