

Mexico

Huge, historical, bustling, local, musical, overwhelming, intimate, Mexico is a land of spectacular contrasts. From ancient pyramids to modern skyscrapers, from sleepy pueblos to gargantuan cities, from 10,000 kms of coastline to jungles and waterfalls, from Aztec and Maya to the present day, Mexico is a world in itself.

At a glance

- Stunning archaeological sites and pyramids throughout the country (Maya and Aztec)
- Palenque – magical, jungle-shrouded Mayan city
- Castillo stepped pyramid at Chichen Itza, pyramids of the Sun and Moon at Teotihuacan
- Elegant, charming colonial cities such as Oaxaca and Merida
- San Cristobal – waterfalls in a highland town
- Caribbean beaches – coral reefs, endless sand, turquoise water
- UNESCO World Heritage Cities – Mexico City, Oaxaca, Campeche and Uxmal
- Good to visit all year round (July and August, mid-December- early January most popular)
- Direct flights from London Heathrow (and also via Amsterdam and Frankfurt) to Mexico City
- Easily combines with Guatemala

Maroma Resort & Spa

Suggested itineraries

Including private transfers, excursions and internal flights. Hotels on a bed and breakfast basis. With British Airways possible to fly into Mexico City and return from Cancun (or in reverse). Self-drive on the Yucatan is recommended. Beach extensions also available. Full itinerary, hotels and prices on request.

Highlights of Mexico 16 nights

- Fly into Mexico City and return from Cancun
- Mexico City 3 nights – epic city with interesting museums and squares
- Oaxaca 3 nights – delightful colonial city
- San Cristobal de las Casas 3 nights – lovely colonial highland town
- Palenque 2 nights – jungle enshrouded site with stunning pyramids
- Campeche 2 nights – UNESCO World Heritage city on the coast
- Merida 3 nights – charming city which especially comes alive at weekends

Alternative Mexico 18 nights

- Fly into Cancun and return from Mexico city
- Valladolid 1 night – colonial era churches and architecture

Hotel Hacienda Mérida

- Rio Lagartos 1 night – Good for bird watching and general wildlife observation
- Chichen Itza 1 night – Busy yet impressive archaeological site
- Hacienda Merida 2 nights - charming city which especially comes alive at weekends
- Uxmal 1 night – important and extensive site with well-preserved structures
- Campeche 2 nights - UNESCO's World Heritage city on the coast
- Palenque 2 nights - jungle enshrouded site with stunning pyramids
- Copper Canyon 5 nights – scenic railway through spectacular gorges and mountain cliffs
- Mexico City 3 nights - epic city with interesting museums and squares

For more information on the various regions, hotels and itineraries in Mexico please check our website www.sunvil.co.uk